Licton Springs, Seattle, WA

Built in 1986, the Villa Maria Apartments is a tastefully renovated 11-unit property located just north of Green Lake and steps away from the newly built Robert Eagle Staff Middle School. Within walking distance or a short drive, residents can get to North Seattle College, Northgate Station and Green Lake with an abundance of surrounding amenities and recreational opportunities. The property was renovated in 2010 and received a new roof, windows, and common area upgrades in addition to renovating the interior of the units. Units have newer cabinets, stone countertops, stainless steel appliances, partial laminate hardwood flooring, and updated fixtures. Each unit has a washer/dryer and private balcony/patio.
