Lot/Land on 40.74 Acres

Randle, Randle, WA

One of kind 40 acres already divided into two 20 acre parcels that adjoins hundreds of thousands if not millions of acres of remote wilderness, the Gifford Pinchot National Forest. There isn't any private property from this land south all the way to the Columbia River, it's incredible. This is beautiful land with 35-40+ year old timber and a year around creek meandering thru property. Wild animals? It's an understatement they're here, elk, deer, bears & others. The property offers beautiful territorial views of the Cascade Mountains with many fabulous building sites that accentuate the views or deep woods privacy. Power & access is close, within a couple hundred feet of the property line. This property is a must see to appreciate
