Baker Hill, Bainbridge Island, WA

Architecturally designed custom home envisioned by Heikki Seppa, a master sculptor. With repeating curves—some simple, some compound—and their intersecting radii, these functional living spaces could only be achieved by a master artist. The property is perfectly sited on .86 of an acre capturing southern exposure and all-day sun with peaceful gardens & magnificent views of Mt. Rainier. On the main level is one primary + office or media room. The upper level boasts a second primary suite with fabulous views. The lower level features a spacious guest suite or additional workspace. A 1,500 sq. ft. deck is perfect for summer entertaining. Excellent storage and an easy stroll to Lynwood center for shopping, dining and entertainment.
