Life revolves around the striking updated kitchen in this mid-century home aptly named Cedar Grove. The open main floor is perfect for cooking, dining, and connecting with loved ones. Natural light sparkles from the skylights in the vaulted ceilings while box beams add touches of warmth. Walls of windows overlook a privacy curtain of green Cedar trees in the backyard. The 3 bedrooms upstairs at the end of the hall are in perfect proximity to each other. A brand-new wrap-around deck is ideal for outdoor hangs while overlooking the flat play yard. Downstairs offers expanded living options with a guest suite, media room, ¾ bathroom, fitness room, and laundry room. Just a skip from the new light rail station makes for a breezy commute downtown.
