Follow in the distinguished footsteps of a woman who single-handedly built a media empire. Priceless opportunity to acquire the Bullitt Mansion, the historic residence of Dorothy Stimson Bullitt (1892-1989), lumber heiress and broadcasting entrepreneur whose philanthropy enduringly shaped many of Seattle’s civic institutions. The 1919 Tudor Revival mansion was dramatically re-imagined in 2023, marrying the strong architecture of the original with Art Deco-inspired glamour and updating systems for luxurious contemporary living and entertaining. Stone courtyards with perennial plantings and geometric hedges of holly, boxwood and laurel frame formal galas and intimate dinner parties at Old Seattle’s best address, the corner of Federal and Gale

Built in 1919
