Belvidere, Seattle, WA

Historic character meets unbeatable location: This vintage 1925 Craftsman bungalow is full of character—original hardwoods and fir floors, large windows, and a classic tile fireplace. A bright back room and partially finished basement offer great flex space for an office, studio, or hobbies. Ready for your vision, it’s a perfect opportunity to build equity over time. Alley access adds future potential for an upgraded garage or DADU (buyer to verify). Just blocks to the shops, restaurants, and farmer’s market at Alaska and Admiral Junctions. Quick access to the West Seattle Bridge and bus lines makes commuting easy. A rare chance to get into a great neighborhood at an approachable price!
