And they said that the perfect property didn't exist... Peaceful and private, views of the water, cute little cabin to stay in while you build your dream home, 10 acres of lush, forest, open space to build, garden, or graze, meandering seasonal creek, close to the lake, river, bay or town, ... It's really got it all. The home itself is small but very serviceable with an outdoor shower and rainwater catchment system. The landscaping transitions from deep forest to tamed gardens. Enjoy the large front deck overlooking the gardens and water, fire pit for gatherings, trails to traverse your domain and plenty of room to stretch out and expand! Fiber optic internet is already installed so you can work from home. Showings by appointment only!
