Cle Elum, Cle Elum, WA

Own a piece of history at 212 Pennsylvania Avenue-a grand theater that once lit up the town from the 1920s through the 1960s. With its original band pit and stage still intact, this space is brimming with character and potential. Recent upgrades include a new roof and reinforced steel beams, making it structurally sound and ready for your finishing touches. Whether you envision a performance venue, creative hub, or community gathering space, this is your canvas. Be part of the Kittitas County story-where past meets possibility.

Built in 1925
